Поставить на сервер твонник Медиа Сервер 6.8.Q: Is there a term for an alien (or non-human) with no arms or legs, and a large brain? I am writing a small story involving an alien that is not humanoid (that means it does not have arms, legs, fingers, toes, eyes, a nose, etc.) but rather a reptilian alien with large scaly sacs on its head. It also has much more developed brain than the typical human, so it can think much faster than normal humans. So far so good. But I am struggling with coming up with a name for this guy. He doesn't really have hands, he can use his mouth to put things together or even do some kind of "scraping" with its mouth and tongue that produces a kind of short piece of string. He also has a membrane that is located on the top of his head like a turtle would have, and when this membrane is pressed or squeezed the membrane makes a noise like a trumpet. He has a long tail, and he can "walk" on it or cling to a wall. He has 4 eyes (two on the front of the head, and one under the other two). I have no idea what 3da54e8ca3
